Preface

The Government of the Punjab constituted a committee to make the curriculum for English Language more appropriate for our children. The committee prioritized the Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) in collaboration with the experts of Punjab Textbook Board and the working teachers. This was done keeping in view students' level, teachers' capacity, our environment, learning hours in an academic year and English as a second language.

On the bases of these prioritized SLOs a textbook of English for Class-I is developed by Punjab Textbook Board. This was reviewed by the panel of International Reviewers. They have made this book a standard one. The experts of PTB has also learnt new dimensions of developing a textbook by working with them.

So this is an effort for our students and teachers according to the environment and circumstances of our society. Your suggestions are requested to improve it.

THE LOVING PAKISTAN

I am a Pakistani.

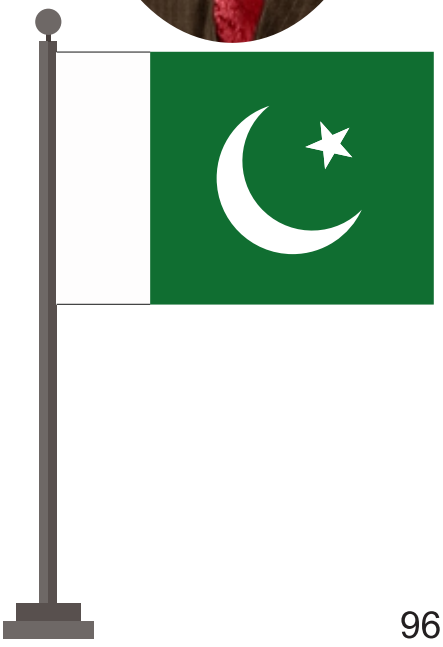
Pakistan is my dear country.

Quaid-e-Azam is the founder of Pakistan.

The colour of Pakistani flag is green and white.

I like this flag very much.

Pakistan has four provinces. They are Punjab, Sindh, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and Balochistan.



Pakistan has plains, mountains, long rivers, thick forests and sea.

I love my country very much.

I always pray for it.

So that, may it live long!

Eid-ul-Fitr is a day of great celebration.

It comes in the end of Ramadan.

Everyone wears new clothes on this day.

Children get Eidi from their elders.

People offer Eid prayer in the Masajid.

They greet, embrace and wish Eid to each other.

Everyone enjoys and rejoices this blessed day of Eid.
